Seldom have young guests enjoyed a merrier evening than the favored ones who attended the bal de tete given on the evening of Valentine's day by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Ball. Innumerable hearts of a deep red dye were used in every conceivable manner to adorn the pretty apartments. Mrs. Ball received as the Queen of Hearts in a dainty gown of mousseline de sois and lace, the skirt ruffled with mousseline and lace from waits to hem, and further adorned with a panel of red hearts in graduated sizes on either side. The low round neck was bordered with tiny red hearts, the short, full sleeves were confined by them, and a large heart was worn as a stomacher. Mrs. Ball carried a large bouquet of splendid American Beauty roses, the graceful gift of one young woman. the graceful gift of one young woman, who was compelled by illness to send re-

Among the various entertainments which the Warwick Club gives during the social season, a fancy dress ball is usually prominent, and Thursday night was the occasion of the club's latest success of that kind. The attendance was very large and the costumes beautiful, original and fantastic. These, with the excellent music, and the evident enjoyment of the participants, ranks the event as the most brilliant of the masque balls ever given by the club.

Miss C. Irene Smith, as "A Little Old Woman," and Mr. A. Hawes as an "Irish Gentleman," carried all the prizes for best representing the characters intended.

The club will give a fine juvenile musical and literary programme Thursday evening, in which many talented Kansas City children will take part.

Mr and Mrs. C. C. Prickett, assisted by their sister, Miss Stella Jenkins, entertained friends very pleasantly St. Valentine's evening. Instrumental music by Mrs. D. A. Miles, vocal numbers by Mrs. I. I. Cammack and Mr. Cummings' feats of leger-demain afforded much pleasure, and the old-fashioned art of conversation was resorted to in the intervals, the hum of merry voices indicating that with this company, at least, apt and entertaining converse was not a forcotten art.

Later in the evening, halves of valentines were distributed and much amusement attended the matching of the different halves, the holders of cach valentine repairing to the dining room together, where refreshments were served. Tulips and ferns were used for table decorations. The following suests attended:

A happy event of the week was the mar-riage of Miss Stella Boyer and Mr. Benja-min F. Coombs, at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. E. A. Boyer, 1613 Park ave-nue, Wednesday evening of last week. Rev-Mr. S. M. Neel officiated, using the beau-tiful and impressive ring service. Only rel-atives and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

atives and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride wore white silk, with pearl trimming, and carried white roses. Miss Arzealia Farrell presided at the piano. To the strains of the wedding march the couple were preceded to the altar by little 5-year-old Helen Boyer, niece of the bride. Little Helen was also dressed in white silk and wore a crown of roses and scattered flowers in the path of the happy couple. After congratulations a wedding supper was served. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. After supper Mr. and Mrs. Coombs departed for an extended trip through the East. They will be at home to their friends at 2109 Troost avenue, after April 4.

The Cupid party given by the Matinee
